GRAND MARCH

United Chapel Saturday was featured by the grand march of the collegiate seniors. Before the march President Frost gave a short explanation of the custom of wearing gowns. In order that the student body would not be surprised, he donned his own gown. There were sixteen seniors in the march.

CLASS ELECTION

The prospective members of the graduating class of the Normal Department met Monday evening and elected the following officers: Gentry Congleton, president; Clarence Nickell, Vice President; Maud Parsons, Secretary and Treasurer; Lorena Hafer, Chairman Social Committee. There are eighteen members in the class.

LYCEUM ENTERTAINMENT

A large audience was entertained in the College Chapel Friday evening by the Metropolitan Grand Quartet. Mr. Taylor in his most happy introduction gave a short sketch of the lyceum courses for the coming year. Many good numbers have been booked, including the famous lecture, "Aeres of Diamonds" by Russel Cogwell which will be given in winter course. The program Friday evening consisted largely of popular songs. However bits of opera and dramatic readings were interspersed. A short selection from "Faust" won the hearty approval of the entire audience. Every one present went away happy and congratulated the Lyceum Committee on their success in obtaining the services of such a quartet.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY NOTES

Miss Verna Engle led the meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association Sunday evening. The topic was: "Too Busy to Be Kind." Miss Engle spoke impressively and appealingly, endeavoring to show her fellow members that they could not afford to be too busy to be kind. Several took part in the general discussion. From week to week the topics for discussion are dealing with the practical phases of life.

A very enjoyable meeting of the Christian Endeavor of the Christian Church Sunday evening was led by Donald Perkins and Miss Neva Christman. The topic for discussion was, "How May Denominations Unite to Serve Christ." The meeting was enthusiastic and replete with interest.

Y. M. C. A. SUNDAY NIGHT

The meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday evening was held under the auspices of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association.

The meeting was in charge of the president of the local league, Howard W. Whitaker.

The speakers were: Leonard Meece, "The Race of Life;" Rev. C. S. Knight, "The Ruin of Rum;" Leonard Fielder, "The Advance of Prohibition;" Melvin Duncan, reading, "College Oil Cans," and special music by the quartet, composed of Messrs. Rigby, Heckman, Hackett and Phalen.

The President in his introductory remarks, told something of the work the league had been doing, of its policy for the year, and quoted from a letter recently received from Otto W. Morner, Southern Field Secretary of the I. P. A., in which he stated that the Berea League had second strongest membership in the state and was surpassed by none that he had visited in regards to the plans and work in which the Berea League is at present engaged and is planning to do.

A good audience was present and this important subject was handled in a live way.

UNITED SERVICE FOR THE MASTER

The young people of the various Christian organizations of Berea and the neighboring vicinity, in order that they may unite their forces for Jesus Christ and work as one great body for the advancement of the Kingdom, will hold a local convention in Berea November 21.

Program will begin promptly at 6:00 a. m. with a sunrise prayer meeting in the Parish House, to be led by the Rev. H. H. Hudson.

At 3:30 p. m. in Main Chapel Rev. C. S. Knight will speak; at 4:00 p. m. H. E. Taylor will speak. Special music will be provided. At 6:15 in Main Chapel there will be a consecration service led by Prof. C. N. Schutt, topic "The Way in Which God Wants To Be Thanked." Ps. 67: 1-7. At 7:30 p. m. there will be a series of four minute speeches from representatives of the various young people's organizations.

METHODIST NEWS

The Rev. D. W. Brown left Monday morning for Maysville, to hold a two weeks revival meeting in the M. E. Church in that city, the pastor of which church is the Rev. J. M. Litter-al, who some years ago was a student and later a teacher in Berea College.

The "Win My Chum Week" campaign closed Sunday night at the Berea Methodist Church, and the Epworth League, under whose auspices the revival was held are happy over the results. The different speakers for the different nights of the week were Secretary Marshal Vaughn, S. M. Rice, the Rev. C. S. Knight, John Miller and Carl Vogel, each of whom brought messages of power and blessing to those present.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church plan to hold the annual Christmas bazaar December 15 to 16, in Mr. Scruggs' office on Main Street. This will be a combined bazaar and food sale. Do not forget the date! The newly elected officers of the Ladies Aid are: President, Mrs. D. W. Brown, Vice President, Mrs. T. P. Wyatt, Secretary, Mrs. Carl Vogel, Treasurer, Miss Carrie Burton.

The Epworth League cabinet were delightfully entertained at the home of their president, William Wilson, on High Street. Important plans were made for live wire events for the coming months, among which will be an oyster supper November 30 for the paid-up members of the Epworth League.

Rev. C. S. Knight of Berea College will fill the Methodist pulpit on Sunday morning next at the Methodist Church, in the absence of their pastor. The following Sunday our district superintendent, Dr. O. G. Ragan will fill the pulpit. The Thursday night prayer and praise meeting will be in charge of S. M. Rice and the eleventh chapter of St. John will be the subject.

A large number of scholars signed the temperance pledge at Sunday school thus making them members of one of the largest temperance societies in the world. Our Sunday school is now busy practicing for their Christmas entertainment.

UNION CHURCH NEWS

A rainy day did not keep the people from church last Sunday.

It was communion Sunday and many united in loving fellowship partook of the Lord's Supper. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Roberts, Lloyd Edward, was publicly dedicated to the service of God last Sunday.

Several new members were added to the church, mostly students of the college.

Special revival services are being held at Blue Lick this week. Mr. Hudson in charge.

"What a splendid meeting we had Thursday night," and similar expressions are heard as one person greet another. One said "It was the best prayer meeting I ever attended." Those few who were not present are realizing what they missed. One man said "I never saw anything like it" referring to the joyful giving for the new church. Another affirms that it was the very best meeting ever held in Berea. All are rejoicing.

The choir is giving us some fine music every Sunday.

The Woman's Christian Association and the Woman's Missionary Society held a joint meeting on Wednesday afternoon of this week in the parlors of Boone Tavern.

There were one hundred and thirty present at the Woman's Industrial Monday. There is not room enough nor sufficient supplies for all who want to enter.

Dr. Roberts gave addresses at the Congregational convention at Corbin on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.
